Dear [REDACTED],

Thanks so much for your thoughtful letter. Since the greater part of the South family lives up the road from you (I grew up in the Frankfort area), I have more than a residual interest in the flow of Kentucky students to Washington and Lee.

There was a time when Louisville plus central Kentucky sent 10-12 students to W&L each year. Your observations are certainly interesting and parallel my experience with several [REDACTED].

I hope that we can find the right solution, and knowing that Washington and Lee has the support of concerned alumni makes our job a bit easier.

Sincerely, /
