Dear [REDACTED]:

I am so pleased to have your note and the copies of your letters to [REDACTED]. I think the testimony you give to the question is most persuasive. I realize Jack is so adamantly opposed to the idea that nothing one says is likely to change his mind. But the others are, I believe, more open to a reasoned consideration of a very important question. The trustees will decide it in July and I will be glad to put the controversy behind us, if indeed we can manage to do that.

My best wishes and my gratitude, too, accompany this note.

Most sincerely,

John D. Wilson
President
