

WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY
LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

May 14, 1984

Dear [REDACTED]:

I am so happy we had a few minutes to talk together this weekend. I was pretty well running from pillar to post and missed seeing many I had hoped to see.

In any event, know how pleased I am to learn that you are anxious to share your views directly with the trustees. The brochure listing their business and home addresses is enclosed. Your acquaintances and friendships are many amongst the Board members and I know your opinion will be respected and appreciated.

My best wishes accompany this hurried note.

Most sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "John D. Wilson".

John D. Wilson
President

Enclosure